

Colorado
Interfaith Power & Light

Creation Care Conference

Climate Change & Faith

April 14-15, 2012

Keynote Speaker: Rev. Rebekah Simon-Peter
Director, BridgeWorks, Casper, Wyoming
Author of Green Church books

Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 4500 N. Wadsworth Blvd., Wheat Ridge, CO

- Full session keynote & guest speakers on Creation Stewardship in a Changing World, De-carbonizing the Grid and Grassroots Organizing
- Senator Morgan Carroll on Grassroots Political Action
- Pick 4 workshops from among 15 sustainability-related topics.
- Visit with 15-20 exhibitors, including vendors, nonprofits, congregations.

Overview

- Saturday evening session: Exhibit floor & Registration open, 5 pm, Workshop session 7 pm. Main guest speaker 7:45 pm. Special rate for Sat. only.
- Sunday session: Exhibit floor opens at 9:30 am. Workshops, keynote speaker, guest speakers, 12:15-5:30 p.m. Includes light lunch; kosher deli box lunch available (request in pre-registration). Special rate for Sun. only

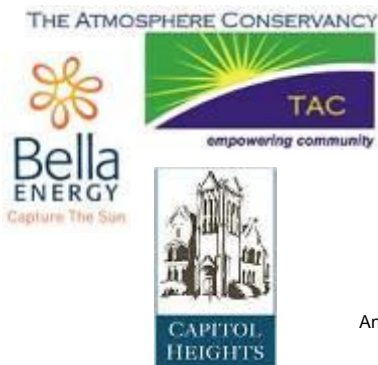

Complete details & workshop descriptions at:

www.coipl.org/programs/conference2012

Register online or call 303 429 5792 for paper registration form.

The mission of Colorado Interfaith Power and Light is to educate and energize Colorado's diverse faith communities to care for God's creation. We focus on climate change as one of the most pressing threats to our planet.

Hosted by Colorado Interfaith Power and Light, Sponsored by:

Angel Sponsors

Sun Sponsors

Earth Sponsors

Nonprofits